AUSTERITY

Ben Spencer, Concordia University, Communication Studies & Creative Writing that limping generation has charted the rise and supremacy of the phony fuck

megalomaniacal mannequins histrionic jelly beans ablaze with the diesel of their own destructive potential ever clearing new space for shrines parades and award ceremonies carnage and gift baskets clogging up the high-rise sewer system flooding the server-client divide attended to by bland mercenaries under-tipping junior partners sword hilts sticky with leave-in conditioner platinum amex, black amex amex of human skin amex of dragon scales and crucifixion nails they wield the cleaving might of silk ties of leopard-pattered power ginch dark matter roiling behind the super-symmetry of porcelain teeth sociopaths in Captain's chairs importing Filipinas to oversee the first tiny goose-steps of their babies in the park and having spent all the food stamps on caviar they plead for rational austerity
